DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the “screw threads” of claim 13, and “the ball assembly” being “non-rotatably mounted in said housing” of claim 5 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR

1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action.

The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 5 is objected to because of the following informalities: there is no antecedent basis for "the ball assembly". Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Morris, US Patent 4,715,090 in view of DE 1,584,006 ('006). Morris provides a vehicle hinge assembly for hinging a vehicle door on a vehicle body, the assembly comprising a first hinge leaf hingedly connected to a second hinge leaf by a pivot pin 3, the pivot pin being immovably mounted in an axial direction in one hinge leaf 1 and being rotatably mounted in, and being axially withdrawable from, the other hinge leaf 14, and hinge pin retention means 22 associated with said other hinge leaf for preventing axial withdrawal of the hinge pin therefrom, the hinge pin retention means having hinge pin engagement means movably mounted on said other hinge leaf for movement between first and second positions, and in its second position being spaced from the hinge pin to permit its axial withdrawal from said other hinge leaf.

Morris does not disclose the engagement means including a spherical surface of a given radius seated in an annular groove of a curved section, the curved section having a radius of curvature the same as said given radius so as to permit rotation of the hinge pin but prevent any axial movement of the hinge pin relative to said other hinge leaf.

Patent '006 provides this general engagement design including a spherical surface 21 of a given radius seated in an annular groove 14 of a curved section, so as to permit rotation of the hinge pin but prevent any axial movement of a pin 13 relative to another member 11, rotatable about the pin. It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made for one skilled in the art to have included in the design of Morris such a modification as generally provided by Smith, for the purpose of providing alternative means of achieving a desired axial locking and unlocking function.

Regarding the curved section having a radius of curvature the same as said given radius, it would have been an obvious matter of design choice to make the different portions of the device of whatever form or shape was desired or expedient. A change in form or shape is generally recognized as being within the level of ordinary skill in the art, absent any showing of unexpected results. In re Dailey et al., 149 USPQ 47. Such a modification is not critical to the design and would have produced no unexpected results.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 2-6 and 8-25 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art of record fails to teach or fairly suggest hinge pin engagement means being a ball bearing located in a housing which is movably mounted in a bore formed in said other hinge leaf for movement between said first and second positions, said housing when in said first position maintaining said ball bearing in engagement with said annular groove.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-6 and 8-25 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. New art has been applied addressing the limitations of claim 1, as outlined above.

Conclusion

This action is non-final.
